10. TYPES OF REAL ESTATE REPRESENTATION – DISCLOSURE & INFORMED CONSENT.

Landlord representation occurs when landlords contract to use the services of their own broker (known as a listing agent) to act on their behalf.

Tenant representation occurs by virtue of Agreement to use Broker's services. (Note: Broker may assist a landlord or prospective landlord by performing ministerial acts that are not inconsistent with Broker's duties as Tenant's agent under Agreement.)

Designated representation occurs when a tenant and landlord in one transaction are represented by different leasing associate(s) affiliated with the same broker. Designated representatives are not dual representatives if each represents only the tenant or only the landlord in a specific real estate transaction. In the event of designated representatives, each representative will be bound by client confidentiality requirements, set forth in the BROKER'S DUTIES paragraph. The broker remains a dual representative.

Tenant consents to designated representation and allows Broker to show properties owned by a landlord represented by this Broker through another designated representative associated with the firm.

Dual representation occurs when the same broker and the same leasing associate represent both the tenant and landlord in one transaction. In the event of dual representation, the broker will be bound by confidentiality requirements for each client, set forth in the BROKER'S DUTIES paragraph.

Tenant does not consent to dual representation thus Tenant does not allow Broker to show properties owned by a landlord represented by this Broker through the same representative. OR

Should any tribunal of competent jurisdiction determine that more than one Party to the dispute has breached Agreement, then all such breaching Parties will bear their own costs, unless the tribunal determines that one or more of the Parties is a "Substantially Prevailing Party," in which case any such Substantially Prevailing Party will be entitled to recover from any of the breaching Parties, in addition to any other damages recoverable against any breaching Party, all of its reasonable Legal Expenses incurred in enforcing its rights under Agreement, whether or not suit is filed, and in obtaining, enforcing and/or defending any judgment related thereto. "Party" as used in this paragraph includes any third-party beneficiary identified herein. Tenant is advised to independently investigate all options for service providers and consider whether any service provider will work effectively with Tenant. Tenant is free to reject any referred service provider for any or no reason.

15. MISCELLANEOUS. Agreement, any exhibits and any addenda signed by the parties constitute the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any other written or oral agreements between the parties.
