

nvar

GLOBAL

Scholarship Program

Annual Timeline & Key Requirements

Overview

The NVAR Global Scholarship Program supports Active NVAR Members pursuing trade missions, global conferences, and other international real estate–related activities. Scholarships are awarded as post-conference reimbursements ranging from $250–$500 USD. A limited number of awards are available each year based on budget.

GLOBAL Scholarship Program

Annual Review Timeline (2026)

The NVAR Global Leadership Advisory Group reviews scholarship applications quarterly. Applicants can expect to receive a response within 1 week after each meeting.

Quarterly Review Dates

Q1 Review: February 26, 2026

Q2 Review: May 19, 2026

Q3 Review: August 12, 2026

Q4 Review: November 19, 2026

GLOBAL Scholarship Program

Application & Award Requirements

- Scholarships are reimbursement only and issued after the applicant submits a Post-Conference Recap Report.
- The Recap Report must be submitted within 30 days of attending the conference.
- Award recipients must be Active NVAR Members, unless an exception is granted.
- Recipients are ineligible for another scholarship for 18 months after receiving an award.
- All Recap Reports will be published on nvar.com.

What to Expect

- Applications reviewed quarterly by the Global Leadership Advisory Group.
- Notification sent within one week after each review meeting.
- Reimbursement processed only after Recap Report submission.

GLOBAL Scholarship Program

1. Required Criteria for Recap Report

1–2 Paragraph Event Overview

- Summarize the conference, trade mission, or global activity attended.
- Include the event name, location, dates, and primary purpose.

Key Takeaways & Learning Outcomes

- Highlight 3–5 insights gained from sessions, speakers, or meetings.
- Explain how these insights relate to global real estate practice or your professional growth.

Regional Real Estate Overview

- Provide a brief description of real estate practices, trends, or market conditions in the region visited.
- Include any notable differences from U.S. or Northern Virginia practices.

NVAR Member Value

- Explain how the experience will benefit NVAR members, clients, or the broader global real estate community.

2. Visual & Media Requirements

Minimum of 3 Photos

- Must be original photos taken during the trip.
- Suggested subjects: event sessions, networking moments, cultural experiences, real estate site visits, or city landmarks.
- Ensure images are high-resolution and appropriate for publication on nvar.com.

1–3 Hyperlinks or Resources

Examples include:

- Event website
- Speaker or organization pages
- Market reports
- Government or trade resources
- Cultural or economic background materials

These help members explore the topic further.

GLOBAL Scholarship Program

3. Reflection & Professional Impact

Personal Reflection

- Share what the experience meant to you professionally.
- Describe any new relationships, partnerships, or business opportunities formed.

Application to Your Business

- Explain how you plan to apply what you learned in your real estate practice.
- Identify any tools, strategies, or global insights you will implement.

4. Formatting & Submission Requirements

Length

- 300–600 words (approximately 1–1.5 pages).

Tone & Style

- Professional, clear, and suitable for publication.
- Avoid promotional language or confidential information.

File Format

- Submit as a Word document or PDF to glavoie@nvar.com for processing.
- Include your full name, brokerage, and NVAR Member ID at the top.

Deadline

- Must be submitted within 30 days of returning from the conference or event.

Contact

For questions or additional information, please visit nvar.com/global